Stillington Shop wins Hambleton Community 'Oscar'

Stillington PO & Stores has won the Community Group / Project of the Year in the Hambleton Community Awards organised by Hambleton DC.

Founder Chairman of the enterprise, Andrew Harrison, received the 'Oscar' along with current Deputy Chair, Howard Williams, at an awards evening at Northallerton on 17 March. The Shop took the Award ahead of a long list of other candidates making a difference in their communities through voluntary work.

Andrew Harrison said "We have now been in existence for 13 years and through a lot of hard work from a large group of volunteers we have established a shop business that provides a focal point for the village. We're now able to use financial surplus from the shop to support other groups in the village. Perhaps that has helped us win this coveted award."

Howard Williams and Andrew Harrison receiving the Community Group of the Year Award from Stephen Dickins, Chairman of Hambleton District Council, and Cllr Bridget Fortune.

Weather Report

Rainfall

The second half of February was drier than the first half, so the monthly total of 36.5 mm was a little below the 'ten year average' of 43.5 mm.

March so far has been wet again, so that the rainfall in the first half of the month, 45.5 mm, already exceeds the average figure for the whole month.

Temperature

The generally mild weather continued throughout February though there were a number of sharp frosts of a morning. On St Valentine's Day we even had some snow, but it did not last for long. The highest and lowest temperatures both occurred in the first half of the month and were reported last time.

March continued in much the same vein, with day-time temperatures topping 15°C on several days but some chilly mornings.

It has been noticeably sunnier during the past month and the February solar output went up threefold compared with the previous months – back to October levels, in fact. MT

Women's Institute

Our March meeting saw the return of Glennis Whyte, who talked about Treasurers House. As always Glennis spoke enthusiastically about the property, and interacts with her audience. We also found out some nuggets of information that are not widely known. We had a wonderful meeting and are in talks to have her back next year... with her Ghost Talk. Watch this space. Thanks to Margaret W for the refreshments.

At our April meeting we are having a demonstration and workshop of ORIGAMI. Everyone is welcome: please let me know so as to make sure we have enough equipment for all. Shirley 810614. £3 including refreshments and you get to take your Origami home.

Good Luck to all members entering the show in Sheriff Hutton. I wish we could all win, but each entry wins a point. And points make prizes.....

Update on our appeals.

- 1) Thank you to everyone who has donated clothes etc. for the Women's Refuge in York.
- 2) Thank you to everyone who has donated handbags, toothpaste, sanitary provision, shampoos, conditioners, etc. for our Helping Handbags Appeal for 8 homeless ladies, through Arc-light in York.
- 3) Our Story Sacks for the village school is going really well thanks to our four knitters. We have Goldilocks and her bears, Snow White and her prince, The Lighthouse keeper and his wife, Harry and his dinosaurs, but I never realised the Hungary Caterpillar ate so many things! So far we have a cherry, ice cream cone, lollipop, apple and a tangerine. If you would like to help us finish them off, then please get in touch.

Thank you to all that helped in our village 'Clean for the Queen' Litter pick. Please support our Book sale on Saturday 16th April in the village hall from 10am till noon. Coffee, tea and biscuits will be served.

Our next meeting is the second Wednesday in April, in the village hall. Come along and join us for the workshop, 8pm.

Stillington Wanderers

With the ground at long last drying underfoot; walkers climbed up from Welburn Church to gain the panoramic view of Castle Howard and its follies. The route followed a drive that past visitors would have used from the old railway station at Whitwell. The restored drive gates are now duly protected by stout wooden posts. The holiday business of InnTravel is housed in a nearby cluster of restored farm buildings.

14th March was a new walk to many: from Thirsk upstream along Cod Beck to South Kilvington Mill and a circular return past very well tended allotments, the Parish Church, disused Masonic building and over the earthwork remains of Thirsk Castle.

Next walks are Monday 11th and 25th April. Meet outside the White Bear at 09.30.

In the Countryside

Sunday 20th March, this morning welcomes the spring equinox with sunshine at 7am. How things have changed in a week! Last week has seen the land dry up, the yard dry and even dust about, the previous week's rain and flooding disappearing at a good rate, despite the fact there have been no drying winds to speak of.

Just after completing the last notes I heard the welcome sound of a curlew flying over, often the first bird of the returning migration birds of the season. Though its journey is only from the coast to the grassy uplands to nest, it is always a welcome sound. Since then a pair have been around the farm as if they will nest here again this year.

A fortnight ago, when we had a fall of wet snow, a good bunch of yellow hammers were busy feeding around the sheep troughs. How brilliant the males' yellow plumage looked against the snow. I enjoyed watching them busily working away but with a very wary eye. I was reminded how as a lad, I showed a local company director a yellow hammer's nest in a thorn hedge with its four eggs which are a pinky, light grey base colour with a dark maroon red haphazard line all over. He was pleased to be shown the nest and told me that he had been brought up to call them scribblers. How long I spent as a bird nesting fanatic (what a bad lad I was). No, I don't think it was all bad. We never took more than one egg from a nest, but as a consequence we learned a lot. We knew most eggs by their colour or shape and nests were usually identified by shape and construction before our little fingers or eyes had seen their' contents. The mystery then, as now, is how do the birds make the pigment colours so true to their specie: the bright turquoise blue of the hedge sparrow, the sky blue of the song thrush with black spots more to the thicker end of the egg, and so on. The collected eggs were blown (i.e. pierced with a thorn at both ends and the contents gently blown out), dried and put into a box to be admired. However, if the egg had been incubated too long the contents could not be blown out. So a trick we played was to put the pierced egg near the entrance of an ants' nest and let them have an egggy supper. Once, having done just that, I went a day or two later to find no trace of the egg. But when I removed a small black stone at the entrance to the hole there was my egg, perfectly round, but completely flattened by the small stone. I am still mystified by how those little ants did what they did to that little egg. We still have much to learn.

I made a mistake a few years ago of planting some bull rushes round the pond near the house. The habitat must be ideal for them and also bog bean, as both are occupying far too much space. The bull rushes or more correctly, giant reed mace, (as a bull rush is a very different plant), are at the stage where the thick, dark seed head is bursting and every puff of breeze sends more of the fluffy seed drifting away to find a soggy patch to make another colony. They grow off a shallow rhizome that can be eaten, so the old cook books say. Ask Mary

Berry?

The colours of the woods are changing now as sap rises and fills the new buds with life and growth. Last week I watched a sticky bud (horse chestnut) actually grow and burst, whilst I ate my breakfast (honestly it was not an all-day breakfast.) The primroses and celandines are showing their colours along the banks, they will soon be joined by more flowers all to be looked out for and enjoyed. R & MJ

Tennis Club

The tennis courts are now as good as when first installed after a full power wash clean and new sand spread. Funding to cover the high cost involved has come from Tennis Club reserves and Hambleton District Council Section 106 monies resulting from recent building developments within Stillington Parish.

Two mixed teams will play in the York and District League (Divs. 4 and 7). Match practice starts Sunday 17 April at 6pm for anyone interested in playing in one of the teams. Club sessions continue throughout the year from 2pm on Saturday afternoons. All are welcome – you can just turn up and play.

Cricket Club

We are about to start another season, although the weather is currently uninspiring!. Outdoor practices for junior and senior players will start on Friday 8th April and first senior matches are 16th April (dates for junior games to follow).

The first team will be at home against Heworth III and the second team are away at Osbaldwick II. Anybody who is interested in playing or helping in other ways is very welcome at any time.

Feel free to call Tim Jarvis (811575) and get involved!

SCHOOL NEWS

We had a very busy start to the year with the exciting news that our junior teacher, Mrs Clark, had given birth to a beautiful baby girl, Georgina Catherine, on the 30th December. Mrs Clark and Georgina have already made a couple of visits to school much to the delight of the children and the teachers!

African Animals

Our spring term topic has been African Animals. The children have made some beautiful masks and wonderful savanna sunset pictures.

Magistrates Visit

We have had a visit from a Magistrate who talked to the Year 5 and 6 children about the work they do. The children also got a chance to be Judge, Jury and defendant in a mock court!

Drumming Workshop

The children had lots of fun when a drumming workshop came to visit. The children spent the morning singing and drumming and making a lot of noise!

Parent Governor

We are pleased to announce that Jamie Kerslake is our new parent governor. Mr Kerslake replaces Guy Saunders who has been an excellent parent governor for a number of years and we would like to say thank you to him for all the help he has given school.

Cross Country!

Liam, Oisín, Tadgh, Lydia and Sophie took part in the cross country finals in February with Tadgh qualifying yet again for the North Yorkshire School Games Cross Country Final at Dalby Forest.

RSPB Big Garden Bird Watch

Miss Cole has been running a lunchtime club for our junior children to prepare for a RSPB Big Garden Bird Watch. The children have thoroughly enjoyed making bird feed and learning how to identify the different types of birds.

Farewell

One of our midday supervisors, Pat, left us at the end of January. Pat has been a wonderful member of our team and she will be missed by us all.

Sainsburys Active Kids

Sainsburys Active Kids is back for 2016. Vouchers are available from the 27th January to the 3rd May inside stores and petrol stations. This is an excellent way to get some much needed resources for school so please bring in as many vouchers as you can. The post office kindly collects vouchers for us so if you have any that you can spare, we would be very grateful for any donations.

Mrs Wells

Our wonderful cook Mrs Wells cooked up pancakes for every child in school again this year which was a lovely treat and is planning an Easter lunch for parents at the end of term.

Goodbye Mrs Cross

As the half term came to an end, we said goodbye to Mrs Cross who has been a fantastic teaching assistant, colleague and friend at Stillington School since 2003. We miss her very much and hope that she comes to visit us whenever she is passing by.

The Vicarage Sutton on the Forest

Dear Friends

Bishop John has written to inform you that I will be resigning as your Vicar in our Benefice.

In the five months after my stroke, I have made great progress. However, it will take much more time to make a complete recovery. I realise, together with my family, doctors and carers that I should resign for the benefit of myself and my family and also for the Benefice.

I am deeply sad to leave you all and know that I will miss all parishioners, conducting church services, personal pastoral care and taking Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals for many village families.

Please pray for me and my family as we face the challenges of financial concerns and housing provision brought about by retiring six years earlier than we had imagined and planned for.

With my prayers and best wishes
Chris Ellis

Spring clean and a new start

There are certain times which are good for making a new start, and one of them is the coming of spring. The buds on the trees, flowers appearing in the garden and lengthening of the days lift our spirits. The sunshine also reminds us of the fact that the windows need cleaning and parts of the house need decorating. So at this time many of us begin spring cleaning. The warmer weather draws us outside and we start working on the garden. Spring cleaning is a ritual in which we seem to lay the winter months behind us and look forward to the warmer weather ahead.

It's not just the house and garden that need to be cleaned out; we need to spring clean our lives too. To take time to tidy up loose ends and sort through the clutter. To clean up parts that have got dusty or in a mess. And we can only do that by turning to Jesus.

At this time we are in the Easter season and are reminded again of how Jesus died so that all our sins could be forgiven, and rose again to give us a new start. This Easter, let us again allow Jesus to give us a spring clean and a new start.
