Flu vaccinations and Covid Boosters

Stillington, Millfield and Tollerton Surgeries will continue to work together this autumn to offer seasonal flu vaccinations and covid vaccination boosters at the Galtres Centre in Easingwold. We will be giving both vaccinations together assuming that the JCVI recommends that both are given at the same time.

Clinic dates will be announced shortly.

Please keep checking Surgery websites/posters and social media for updated information.

Stillington Good Neighbours

With the ending of lockdown rules Stillington Good Neighbours can be more relaxed as they continue to support the spontaneous generosity which is a feature of the village. There have been many, many acts of kindness shown to neighbours throughout this difficult time.

Keeping to lockdown rules resulted in fewer visits from our group but we have continued to welcome new residents and new babies. We have extended sympathy to the bereaved and seriously ill and have made many phone calls and helped with shopping.

During the pandemic we have distributed gifts to approximately 70 villagers. The group is funded by the Church and Stillington Charity to whom we are most grateful. We are also indebted to Graham Cookman who updates and prints off the 'Welcome to Stillington' booklet; also to the Village Shop who give a £5 voucher to new residents.

The success of the scheme is very largely dependent upon good communication and so we rely on all residents to pass on information, especially when someone new comes into our village.

Shoebox gifts – we will be collecting shoebox gifts again in November for Samaritans Purse, with full details to follow in the October Stillington News. Handmade toys are now accepted, along with knitted hats, scarves and gloves. I started packing shoeboxes as a thanks to God for my first grandchild – now I have to fill nine of them!

To see the effect your gifts have on their recipients, have a look at the short 2021 campaign film on samaritans-purse.org

Stillington Cricket Club

After a much-curtailed programme last year, Stillington cricketers have enjoyed a full season in 2021 with both senior and three junior teams having a full fixture list largely undisturbed by inclement weather or the pandemic. This month sees the end of the senior league season with the final games being played on 11th September. The first XI currently sit one place above the relegation positions and will be hopeful of a storming finish to ensure survival in Galtres Division 2 for another year.

Meanwhile, the second team have enjoyed a largely successful season. Fielding eleven players has sometimes been a challenge but with loaned players from other clubs all but one fixture has been fulfilled and we expect a comfortable mid-table finish to the season. One positive benefit has been to enable several of our juniors to get some experience of senior cricket and with more juniors than ever attending the Friday evening coaching sessions, the future looks bright.

Off the field we have been fortunate to obtain financial support from several different sources, not least due to the marathon effort of Liam Coultous early in the season. We have also welcomed the support of Becky and Daniel at the Bay Tree who organised a special event on 24th July. This was well attended and an enjoyable dinner resulted in a donation of over £300.

Repairs to St Nicholas Stonework

More than two years ago there was a wonderful response from the village to the fund-raising appeal towards the rather costly repairs that had been found to be necessary to the church stonework and some of the rainwater goods.

It is thought that people may be wondering where we are with this project as, obviously, nothing has yet happened.

The pandemic has clearly contributed to the delays: even though after the initial total lockdown, stonemasons, like most building trades, have been able to continue working. Unfortunately, other factors have come into play and, though we have been given a number of contract start dates, these have come and gone and nothing has happened.

The good news is that we have now been given a totally firm date of Monday 25 April 2022. This time we are assured that the date is literally "cast in stone!"

So, just after Easter next year the scaffolding will go up and the work will commence. Sadly perhaps, most of the work is going to take place on the north side of the tower where, not too surprisingly, most of the damaged and eroded stone is to be found and will not therefore be visible from the front of the church. However, as the scaffolding is in place it is intended to re-gild the face of the clock and this at least should be quite visible to everyone.

School News

What a strange year, but we ended it in style saying a sad goodbye to our Year 6s who embark on their journey to secondary school. We were able for the first time in over a year to welcome parents to the leavers' service. We shared laughs and tears at the children's memories. We are hoping for a more normal return to school life in September and look forward to many trips and adventures together with our partner school friends.

The children enjoyed a music workshop with Dave Webb, the music man, before we broke up. We are delighted to share that in the autumn term he will be delivering our weekly music curriculum and the children will be given the opportunity to learn to play drums and ukuleles with him.

If you would like to come and visit us to see what our school and nursery has to offer, please contact us on stillingtonoffice@foston.n-yorks.sch.uk.

Our nursery, taking children from 3 years old, offers the perfect transition to our reception class with both part-time and full-time places available. If you only get 15 hours of nursery funding your child is welcome to attend full-time at no additional cost (subject to availability).

The Annual Show

The 42nd Annual Show took place on Sunday 15th August after a gap of one year. What a show Carol Marsh put on ably assisted by Dennis North who arranged the Village Hall.

There were a total of 85 classes with 206 entries, and 6 junior classes with 13 entries. This was fantastic when the growing season is taken into account and covid.

The 'Best in Show' prize was won by Valerie Black with Connie Walker winning the best child garden prize. Well done to all those who entered an exhibit. Better luck next year. More photos of winners will be shown at the first speaker's evening.

The programme for 2021/2022

Our first speaker for the 2021 season is Julien Davies. His interesting talk is about "Innovations in Vegetable Growing". This is on September 29th at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. Coffee and tea will be served before the talk.

The Winners Club

Following its success last year, it has been agreed this should run for a second year. This is a bit of fun and a fundraiser. Any member can buy a number of tickets for £10 each. The ticket will be the name of your favourite flower or vegetable plant. Each ticket/name goes into a draw at each of our 7 Speakers evenings, Christmas Party and AGM. So, 9 chances to win. There is a first prize of £15 and a second prize of £5.

Tickets/names can be bought from the Treasurer - cash, cheque or Bacs. Please contact Robert on 810513 for details or email - churton234@btinternet.com.

Stillington Short Mat Bowls Club

A new season of Short Mat Bowling begins on Tuesday 21st September in the Village Hall 2 - 4 p.m. Old and new members are most welcome to join us. If you are new to bowling please wear soft flat shoes and we can provide the bowls.

Objects Of Interest No 13

Each month we will show an "Object of Interest" in the Stillington area.

An extract from Rudyard Kipling's poem, The Elephant's Child.

"I keep six honest serving men.

(They taught me all I know).

Their names are:

What and Why and When and How and Where and Who.

QUESTIONS:

When was St Nicholas' Church rebuilt in the shape it is today?

Who remodeled the church?

What was done?

Where was the tower before it was moved?

Why was the work done?

How were the older areas of the church saved?

ANSWERS:

When? 1840 with the church being reopened on 22nd April 1841

Who? Brothers John Bownas and William Atkinson, architects of York

What? The nave and aisles were put under one roof with the chancel roof altered to harmonize the roof line. The west end was totally demolished and rebuilt with the tower being moved to its present position.

Where? In line with the porch, which is in its original position.

Why? Disrepair and lack of space.

How? Money was tight so many older parts in good repair were reused.

Countryside Notes

I pick up the pen on 23rd August after a fine day with good evening sunshine, after a week of rather mixed weather. It is, however, very noticeable how the nights are drawing in and another stage of the year is passing. Back in early July, we had a family of Lapwing, Green Plover or Peewits, whichever you call them, in the grass field at the back of the farm, they were joined by another family and so by August over 100 were about, becoming a larger flock where they will live with safety in their numbers until spring calls them back to their old haunts. Almost the day that the last Notes were written, a lone Robin was singing in the buildings. They seem to come back to the farm and garden to establish territory for next spring; a territory that they will defend aggressively. These friendly birds often nest early in the year defying cold and wet in some obscure place or odd old kettle.

Last week was the Village Gardening Show. How lovely my large apples looked at the top of the tree, a Keswick Codlin, whose apples make a superb fluffy apple pie. These apples are yellow skinned with a castellated Calix end, and are a very old variety, like the Bramley, but a different flesh altogether. They are early ripening and don't keep very well if not eaten. However, when I went up the ladder, to look at my apples they were not the beautiful 'swans' I expected but instead were 'ugly ducklings' and not as large as I had expected either, therefore finding three to match for the gardening show was no easy trick.

No, I didn't get rich on any winnings!! Such shows of various sizes have played a major part in the improvement of what we grow and breed on the farm and in the garden, which ultimately leads to a more plentiful supply of good food and a garden of full colour. Many will have heard of Russell Lupins but are you aware that Mr Russell was a Stillington man who was absorbed into breeding finer specimens of Lupin here in the village and at his garden near the Terry's Chocolate Factory in York. He spent much of his life round his Lupins, and many sought his secrets for fine blooms.

I am seeing some wonderful beds of yellow flowers on the roadside to York, being the flowers of Meadow Pea or Meadow Vetchling flourishing like never before and the sky-blue Meadow Cranesbill is enjoying the regrowth of the roadsides. These and many more, like the large yellow Sow Thistles that will keep flowering while Jack Frost takes his nip!

While fencing last week there were a number of little toadlets in the grass which were good to see. If they are lucky, they can live for forty years or more and once upon a time a gardener would always have one or more in his greenhouse. We have been amused lately by Blackbirds feeding on ants on the lawn. However, some have been going through great contortions as the ants have crept into their feathers.

There is so much going on out there for you to see. Good looking.

Stillington Village Hall

We are now hoping to host our comedy evening with George Egg, the stand-up comedian who cooks on stage. Originally billed more than a year ago as The DIY Chef, George is now offering his new show Movable Feast, so it's time to get the show on the road – literally.

George demonstrates how to cook with an engine, procure items from the train buffet trolley and turn unexpected road works into a picnic. He will produce three plates of gourmet food cooked live in the most unconventional ways, with the opportunity to taste the results at the end, if you can stop laughing long enough.

George Egg MOVABLE FEAST will be at Stillington Village Hall on Sunday 10th October at 4pm and 7.30pm. We are putting on two smaller-audience shows on the same day to offer reassurance that social distancing is still possible and hopefully give everyone a more intimate experience and better view of what is going on. Tickets are £10 adults, £5 under 18s, available on-line from www.ruralarts.org or via Yvonne on 811544. As we are monitoring numbers it will not be possible to put tickets on open sale this time in the Village Stores, so booking on-line is recommended if possible.

Hopefully by Christmas we will be able to enjoy a full house for our pantomime – Jack and the Beanstalk – this year presented by TaleGate Theatre, on Tuesday 28th December at 2pm. Put the date in your diary now and book on-line or look out for tickets in late November.

Both these events are offered via Rural Arts, supported by Arts Council England through Lottery funding, enabling us to bring professional shows to our village hall at reasonable prices.

The way ahead... As we approach September I'm guessing that we are all conscious that we are developing a 'new normal,' the regulations have gone; it is now guidance. For each individual we now have to make our own choices, about how we go about our daily lives. Our communities are getting used to a different landscape and we are changing to adapt to different circumstances. The pandemic, if you look, is and has been a mixed blessing. We saw so much compassion that has been realised through acts and deeds of kindness for others. We saw friendships develop, a new neighbourliness.

Now as we move forward it is time to build on those friendships; to build on what has been gained in our communities. As we get our lives back and slip into regular weekly routines, what about Sundays? What about Church? It is a good question in relation to community, the church community. Ask yourself, where is the community spirit heading now – now that September is upon us? It is a new year for our schools as they reopen after the summer break; the busyness of life resumes and we perceive some sense of normality (whatever that means).

But what does that mean for you, me and our village church? To help answer that I turn to the New Testament Book of Hebrews. This sums up for me the way ahead: 'And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, ²⁵ not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.' Hebrews 10:24-25

We are in this together. So, together with the God who loves us more than we can ever know or understand we will get through this, we will see the 'new normal', and get our lives back. Let's choose to journey together walking in the light with our faith, hope and love strengthened, and a willingness to help one another when called upon.
