To all the Stillington residents and surgery patients

A rather belated thank you for the many cards I received, generous and thoughtful gifts, and the kind words in the surgery car park on 18/2/22 marking my retirement after 31 years as GP partner at Stillington Surgery.

I soon realised reading and re-reading your cards, just how difficult it will have been for some of you to reflect on my involvement with you during some of the most difficult and sad times in your lives. Naturally there have been many happy memories as well, often involving babies and weddings.

I have loved my time at Stillington, the people I have met, those I have worked with and the many beautiful places I have visited when on duty at all times of the day and night and in all weathers. To work alongside Dr Jones for 30 years and more recently Dr Metcalfe and Dr Keen has been a privilege and a pleasure. With sadness I recently attended the funeral of Val Sparrow. She was the first member of staff I met on the day of my job interview. I was met with her warm smile and welcome which set the tone of the surgery. Thankfully I left with a smile and a job offer to follow. It was lovely to see Dr Jean Toynbee at the funeral, aged 100, Grand Dr Jones's predecessor.

We have had many sad times in the surgery but these are outweighed by the laughter with staff and patients. All the staff have appreciated the generosity of patients with edible gifts over the years.

The surgery has thrived, not least because of the support and understanding of the patients. Never more so over the last 2 years when we all had to navigate the ever changing rules and restrictions of the pandemic. On 2 occasions we were within half an hour of closing the surgery due to staff illness and isolation. I cannot praise the staff highly enough for their commitment, led by Barbara Wilson, in keeping the surgery open, maintaining our high level of medical care and, in partnership with Tollerton and Easingwold GP surgeries, delivering the COVID vaccination programme.

What of my future?

I have already chosen and enjoy the piece of art you generously paid for. A modern work by Linda Mellin from the Leaping Hare gallery. It depicts the North Yorkshire I have loved for 35 years. You also kindly treated me to a theatre trip in London. I went to see Cabaret which was exceptional.

My husband and I have just returned from Sunny Scotland and plan more trips north with our walking boots, bikes and our Border terrier Roddy.

In January 2023 we are off to New Zealand to visit our daughter, then later in the year to Westpoint military academy in New York State where our son is soon to take up his next posting. Our other son marries next June so it is going to be a fun year!

It has been lovely bumping into some of you when I'm out walking Roddy, at Easingwold's Friday market or at events at the Galtrees centre. Do stop and say hello.

Thank you once again

Wishing you all health and happiness

Dr Barbara McPherson

Goodbye to Alex

Practice nurse Alex Glenwright is hanging up her nursing uniform, after 30 years at Stillington Surgery and 50 years in the nursing profession, to retire on the 30th August 2022.

It is now time to raise your glasses and toast a huge thank you and a fond farewell to Alex who first began working at Stillington Surgery in January 1993 for then partners, Peter and Barbara.

Over the last 30 years Alex has provided the highest standard of healthcare to the community. Dealing with a variety of needs and requirements; from asthma, COPD and childhood vaccinations, to stitching farmers fingers and always being a reliable, sympathetic shoulder to cry on.

She has been part of so many people's lives. Present at the time of babies being born, caring for them as they grew into adults and continuing that dedication of care as they became parents themselves.

Alex has participated and raised money for many Macmillan Charity events and has always been grateful for the support she has received from the surgery and community in raising funds for the cause.

Alex will now be able to spend more time with her husband John, who has been her rock throughout this journey, and enjoy the finer things that life has to offer. Of course, not forgetting more time to spend with the rest of her loving family and her much cherished grandchildren.

Alex's family are first in a very long line of those who would like to say "They are so very proud of you and know you will be truly missed within the community of Stillington."

We, at the Stillington News, would like to also add our thanks Alex, for your many years of loyal and dedicated service. You have made an impact on your patients, co-workers and the community of Stillington. We hope you enjoy a long and joyful retirement.

Stillington Wanderers

Just one walk on 4th July as the 18th July walk was cancelled owing to very high temperatures. Parking at Hovingham Village Hall, the walkers headed over Hovingham Park with its oldest privately owned cricket pitch laid out in front of the Hall. Sir William Worsley was an amateur first class cricketer and president of Yorkshire CC for many years. The Hall and estate has been in the ownership of the Worsley family for 450 years. It was built by Thomas Worsley who was obsessed by both horses and architecture; the Riding School, with its good acoustics, is now often used for Ryedale festival concerts. Following the stream through the Park, the route crossed the road & along Mill Wood valley and up past Hovingham Lodge; then southeast through South Wood and onto the Ebor Way back into Hovingham. Next walks are 1st, 15th and 29th August. Meet 9.30am outside the White Bear.

Your Village Defibrillator is kept in the Church Porch Available 24/7. A second Defibrillator is at the Sports and Social Club near the Squash Court entrance. No code needed.

*Remember: Call an Ambulance, start CPR, get the Defibrillator - it will tell you what to do***

Stillington and Farlington WI

On Wednesday 13th July, we welcomed 10 visitors to hear Kevin Hutchinson talk about the Yorkshire Air Ambulance.

In 2000 the first patient was carried in a rented helicopter working out of a portacabin at Leeds/Bradford airport.

In 2004 the team moved to better facilities and in 2006 a new chairman and different trustees (all volunteers) decided to buy a helicopter instead of renting. Also in this year Top Gear presenter Richard Hammond was seriously injured while filming at Elvington airfield. He was airlifted by YAA which brought the organisation into much wider public knowledge and led to the development of a TV show called Helicopter Heroes which ran for 14 series. It also resulted in more money being donated which was used as a deposit for a second helicopter based at RAF Topcliffe.

In 2013 the service moved from Leeds/Bradford to Nostell Priory near Wakefield.

In 2016 two new, purpose designed helicopters were bought

(the 2 old ones were sold) and in 2017 the helicopters began carrying GpO Rhesus negative (universal donor) blood. Each day two units of fresh blood are delivered to each of the bases. Also night flying using Night Visibility Goggles began. As most pilots are ex-military they have experience of using these but the paramedics need to be trained.

Most areas in Yorkshire are within 20 minutes flying time, patients are flown to one of four trauma centres Leeds General, Sheffield, James Cook and Hull Royal Infirmary.

All the doctors are consultants or above and they work on a rota basis. As a charity, the only government help received is through secondment of doctors and paramedics from the NHS. To keep both air ambulances flying requires £12,000 per day so donations from the public are very important. We can help support this vital service by donating (on-line, by text, direct debit, single or regular donations, by phone or cheque) not forgetting the collection box which is in our village shop. It's amazing how those bits of loose change add up.

Next month's meeting is just for members but in September we will be hearing about the Rowntree Theatre. We will be pleased to see visitors then,

We meet in Stillington Village Hall on the second Wednesday of the month at 7pm and welcome all visitors (£4 including refreshments ). Hope to see you there!

Stillington Bowling Club

On Saturday 16th July the Bowling Club Open Competition was held for the Dennis Law & Andre Davis Memorial Cup. Teams of two can enter from any bowling club, including home teams. This year there were 12 teams playing in the event which is sponsored by the White Bear Pub, Stillington.

Our bowling green is acknowledged as one of the best in the area this season, due to the fantastic work of our Head Green Keeper, Tim Drew.

The morning started as a perfect day with a blue cloudless sky and sun which continued all day. It was not too hot, thankfully, as record temperatures were forecast for the following week. With such good conditions and a perfect green the bowling played was to a very high standard. As normal for this event the away teams outnumbered the home teams, but what a great result we had with the first Stillington BC winners for 14-years.

Backing up the competition, food, drinks, and a raffle were provided in our cool clubhouse. Thanks to all who organised this.

The picture shows Tara Robinson from the White Bear presenting the Cup to the winners; Harold Tomlinson and Colin Speck from Stillington!

After the weekend, we return to the normal business of club league matches, results for the Hubby League are published in the Easingwold Advertiser (nice to see us currently at the top). The Club Mini League competition for newer bowlers also continues (Les asks if we can all get our games played!).

Everyone can keep up-to-date via our website at www.stillingtonbowls.club, the club house notice board, and the Stillington News.

Eco Top Tips from St Nicholas' Church

Every month the Eco-Working Group at St Nicholas' Church gives a few handy tips for every household to understand and control their carbon emissions, as an act of love for Christ's creation and our fellow human beings. For August, then:

On the Internet: Switch to using a green search engine on the internet such as www.ecosia.org, which plants trees to absorb the carbon emissions from your web searches.

Be informed: Read a book to become more "carbon literate" and understand the greenhouse gas cost of your choices. Try "How Bad are Bananas? The Carbon Footprint of Everything" Mike Burners-Lee.

Money Magic: Move your bank account to an ethical bank which invests your money in low carbon, ethical, environmental projects, such as the Triodos Bank. Ethical consumer sites (like Which?) provide independent advice www.ethicalconsumer.org

Countryside Notes

Tuesday 19th July 2.30pm, the hottest day on record, so I have escaped from the afternoon heat to the north side of the house. The heat is not too good for us, nor for the wildlife around us. The sheep know where to find shelter and do so throughout the heat of the day, coming out to graze when the sun goes back on the bare, burnt, brown grass. We have had to start and supplement feeding with hay and cereal, which they come to eat with some vigour. So, I open the gate and stand back, or I would get knocked back which is not good for a veteran. Many creatures find their own way of keeping cool. I saw an Aspen tree dealing with it in its own way: for Aspen trees shake and tremble in the breeze hence the term "shaking like an Aspen". This tree, like all cousins of the Poplar family, have leaf stalks that are oval rather than round, so they can fan in a breeze to cool the tree and so steady transpiration of water, however this trait is more pronounced in the Aspen. The Blackbird and other birds often lie with spread feathers to let the heat get out from the close fit needed for good aerodynamics, while other birds go into the eclipse mode as mentioned last month, where the feathers are moulted in readiness for new ones for winter. Some members of the duck family separate into parties of males and will fly off to some special destination where flight is not essential, to don their new suit, leaving behind females and juveniles to their own resources.

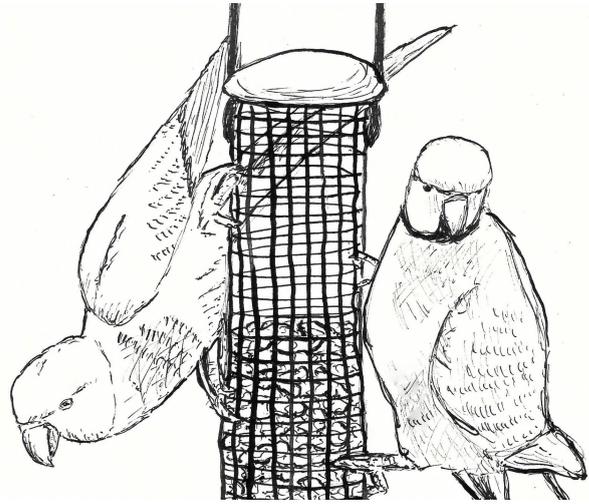

Our winter sown barley is harvested and is cooling off before being heaped up. It is easy to think that a heap of corn is inert, but they are real living seeds that have to be helped into dormancy after the heat that has dried the grain before it is fully ripe. The grain has been coming in at 13% moisture which is very dry. However, in a more normal time, the benchmark before price reductions set in is 15%. So, we will be giving away 2% of the yield. Grain prices are volatile this year, with the Ukraine market upsetting traditional patterns of world prices, over recent weeks the price of wheat has dropped £100 per tonne. So, if you have seen our "crystal ball" would you help us relocate it?

At the time of writing, the grass verges have benefitted from the 'Chelsea Chop' as the gardeners call it. Cranesbill is flowering with its soft blue flowers, Selfheal with its strong magenta flowers is a good sight, Bindweed, close to the ground, with white and some pink candy stripe are all picturesque and with creamy yellow Meadowsweet nearer the hedge along with Umbelliferous tall plants, all adding colour to our countryside. Unfortunately, our Butterflies are suffering, with numbers declining alarmingly, for various reasons. The last few years the weather has been cool and wet for second broods of eggs and this year succulent growth of vegetation will be scarce if the weather doesn't alter, which would leave second broods hungering. One of our more frequent visitors are Commas, which until fairly recently were not seen so far north. Everything needs a drink so put out some water with the bird food and see who comes for a drink.

P.S. Two Parakeets have been seen in the village!

Weather Report - July 2022

As I write we are experiencing record high temperatures as far north as York. Hopefully, it will not reach the 40°C forecast for the South.

Rainfall

Rainfall in June, at 42mm, was below the 69mm average for the month.

So far, July has given us a mere 10.5mm. Thirteen consecutive days without measurable rainfall has left the land parched.

Temperature

The maximum temperature in June was 27.3°C on the 23rd of the month. The minimum remained at 5.9°C, recorded on the 1st/2nd of the month.

The first half of July gave us a maximum of 29.4°C on the 11th, the current heatwave having not yet arrived.

Overnight temperatures have remained in double figures, with a minimum of 11.0°C on the night of 4th/5th

Moving forward

As I come to the end of my ministry in Easingwold and surrounding villages, I have been doing a lot of looking back and remembering. It is difficult to imagine that I have been in this lovely part of the country for 10 years, and it has been a privilege to get to know people in Stillington and share worship here. In August I will be moving to Poppleton, looking after churches there and Lidgett, Clifton, Hessay and Rufforth. Rev David Bidnell is taking pastoral charge of the Villages Together Methodist Church, and hopefully you will get to meet him soon.

Thank you to all of you who have supported me on my journey. May this be a time for all of us to look back on what God has done and celebrate it with thankfulness, and to move forwards as His people, knowing that wherever it is, He goes always before us.

Elizabeth

There have been masses of butterflies enjoying the knapweed in July: meadow browns, ringlets, cabbage whites and I think some skippers?

The birdsong has been lovely too - the wonderful phone app Merlin analyses birdsong live so you can find out who's singing even if you can't see them!
