A Brief History of – the Village Hall

Stillington Village Hall started life as the Village School. In 1811 there was established the National Society for “Promoting the Education of the Poor in the Principles of the Established Church”. Subsequently schools were built throughout the country. The one in Stillington was built in 1821 on land given by the then Lord of the Manor, Colonel Harry Croft, on part of what is now the village green. Further land was provided in 1842 to build separate ‘facilities’ for boys and girls and a fenced off outdoor area.

Although there had previously been the so-called “Dame Schools” this was the first purpose-built school in the Village. It preceded the 1870 education act, which made primary education compulsory, by fifty years. The building housed the village school for nearly ninety years, until it was replaced by the present school building on the Main Street in 1907, known to villagers as the ‘Council School’.

The building remained unused, apart from the occasional event, until the late 1920's. The folk of Stillington decided in 1928 the building would make a good parochial hall. The conversion process involved widening the building and raising the roof. The brickwork on the southern side of the hall shows traces of these changes to this day. It cost a total of £620 raised by subscription and a donation from the Church Commissioners. In September 1929 a grand opening was held, with the opening ceremony conducted by Squire Liddell of Stillington Hall.

The hall is a registered charity and the members of the management committee are the trustees. They are elected each year at the Annual General Meeting, held usually in May. It has been the custom to invite organisations which regularly use the hall to put forward nominations at the AGM. This has resulted in a wide cross-section of village life being represented to provide a broad sweep of skills.

Over the past few years there has been much refurbishment without changing its basic layout. Further improvements are proposed, subject to funding being forthcoming. First on the agenda is to change the ‘toilet-style’ high level windows in the committee room to full length windows matching the rest of the building. Also being considered is the replacement of one of the windows on the east side, facing the green, with full length ‘French’ doors. A ramp on the outside would enable this to be an alternative, wheelchair-friendly emergency exit. Nice for functions to spill over outside if the weather permits or to extend the hall with a marquee!

Regular users of the hall include the monthly gardening club and WI as well as the parish council. Weekly users are the short-mat bowls, in the winter months, and martial arts. Occasional users are the archive group and the parish church (there is no church hall). The hall also hosts coffee mornings, children's parties and private lunches. In addition to which, the hall committee arranges concerts and other productions made available through Rural Arts.

At other times the hall is available to hire at competitive rates. Facilities include a fully fitted kitchen with utensils, crockery and cutlery. There is a selection of chairs and tables with some low tables and small chairs suitable for children. A digital projector and sound system is available by arrangement. The hall is also covered by an alcohol licence. The capacity of the main hall is 100.

Our Village Hall is currently under-used. Any new initiatives which involve the community would be most welcome.

Stillington & Farlington WI October Report

At our October meeting we greeted Mr Richard Carew, the domestic Chaplain to the Archbishop of York. He told us a little of his background and the work he does for the Archbishop. Including the walk of over 1,000 miles over six months which they did last year. We were told about the history of Bishopthorpe Palace which started with buying the land way back in 1215. Although there has been an Archbishop of York since 743 Saint Paulinus taking on the title. Richard told us about the charities the Archbishop is involved with including his own which involves teenagers and leadership. The Archbishop of York Youth Trust, it has its motto as: "Be the change you want to be...." He also talked about the Palace and how different Archbishops have extended the palace and put their own mark on it. He also touched on Dr J Sentamus' early life in Zimbabwe and the reason why he doesn't wear his dog collar any more. It was a very fascinating talk and it was lovely to see new faces as visitors.

Two of our members attended the Autumn Council Meeting in Norton, where we had 2 ladies talking about nurses in the first world war. After lunch Peter Wright spoke about his life as a vet which was filled with anecdotes of his life and veterinary experiences. (The Yorkshire Vet fame)

Please come along to our next meeting at Stillington Village hall on the second Wednesday of November at 8pm. Our speaker is Margaret Price and Fair Trade products, including her recent trip to Ghana. £3 for visitors including refreshments.

St Cuthbert's Short Mat Bowling Club

The St Cuthbert's Short Mat Bowling Club was formed over twenty five years ago and was one of the founding members of the game in North Yorkshire. Since its formation, it was based initially at Ampleforth and then Crayke for ten years, the club has been acutely involved in the KYLE VALLEY, VALE OF YORK and RYEDALE LEAGUES. Now we are based at the Stillington Sports and Social Club, where we have been made welcome by the committee and in particular Dennis North.

The club has a membership of over twenty and we run four teams and a social bowling club, from mid September to late March each year. We are actively seeking new members to compete in the Vale of York pairs and Ryedale Leagues. If you are interested please ring: Pete Davies on 01347 824821, or Arthur Jackson on 01347 822723. As a club we are not trying to poach members from other clubs, such as the excellent Stillington Short Mat Bowling Club, but we are seeking new members to bowl in the Ryedale league. Bowlers can play for different clubs, providing it is not in the same league.

The Club also runs a very successful social bowling club from 2-4pm every Friday at the Stillington Sports and Social Club and new members are welcome. Why not come along and watch, or take part in a game? Everyone is welcome, whether you are an experienced bowler or a newcomer to the group.

Safe, fun, stimulating care from 2 years of age

You may remember from last month's article that Stillington Playgroup have been hatching and rearing a clutch of nine eggs. Sadly egg number nine did not hatch but all the other eight rare breed chicks have survived and thrived and have now been returned to their official owner who already had good homes arranged for them to go to. It is very quiet without the near constant background cheeping now and they will be missed!

The last half term was again a busy one with the children also looking at "harvest time", using flour to make bread and pizzas and discovering the names of baby animals. Personalised Christmas artwork was also created, to be turned into a variety of stationery products and gifts in the next couple of weeks!

We are an independent playgroup run on the premises of Stillington Primary School and open 9:10am until 3:20pm every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday during term time. We take children aged from 2 to 5 years old. Funded places are available and we accept childcare vouchers.

If you would like to bring your child to see what else we do at Stillington Playgroup you are welcome to visit together on Thursday mornings from 9:30am to 10:30am, a snack is provided for all children.

The last day of half term is Thursday 21st December and the first day back will be Tuesday 9th January 2018.

Countryside Notes

Thursday 19th October, another day that has turned out to be rather wet this afternoon. I have been to a sheep sale at Wembleton near Kirkbymoorside. The entry of 7500 looked well but by mid afternoon the sheep looked rather wet and bedraggled and the prices fell in accordance with the conditions. I think they will look cheap when they dry out again, but we don't know what the price for prime lamb will be in the new year.

Yesterday a little brown head appeared above the grass in the hedge bottom. With beady bright eyes surveying the area the Weasel quickly saw me and disappeared, had I stopped longer it would probably have had another peep for they are very curious like their larger relatives, the Stoat.

We have in this area a large population of Buzzards. These large dark brown raptors are masters of economic flight doing an awful lot of gliding. Seeing one recently very close I saw that the end flight feathers on the wings are bent backwards which helps to reduce the creation of wingtip vortices thereby reducing drag, the wings of passenger airplanes copy this design.

The The swallows have departed and only an odd butterfly is about, with Red Admirals enjoying over ripe fruit and stocking up with sugar in preparation for the long winter sleep. There has been a real shortage in Tortoiseshells and Peacocks and this year I haven't found a colony of either. We have often before taken these and fed them through to the chrysalis stage then releasing the butterflies after a couple of weeks on a sunny morning. Much to the delight of our two grandchildren.

Thoughts from Rev. Elizabeth Cushion

In my last appointment, the staff made a trip to Belfast to visit a couple of the church missions there and to explore the history of Belfast and its community. It was an interesting and informative trip in which I learned a lot about Belfast and the conflicts that have been experienced there.

As we were guided through Belfast, we were shown many of its political and social justice murals and peace walls. These peace walls seemed to be a contradiction in terms as they kept communities separated from one another. The fact that these communities were still separated made us wonder just when and how reconciliation was supposed to take place. How could communities learn to live together if they continued to allow such division in their lives?

As we come to another Remembrance Sunday this month we are reminded that the Christian Gospel is about brokenness and healing. Jesus came to restore relationships by loving us and forgiving us, and showing what God is like.

May God's peace be with you all.

We have an Elephant Hawk chrysalis from a large ugly caterpillar we found near the house, it will remain in its flimsy cocoon in an old sweet jar, just below a few inches of soil. So next June we will watch out for a brilliant metallic pink and green Moth emerging and, if female, will lay eggs on willow bark. Also a couple of woody, ruby tiger caterpillars are safely stored in their substantial cocoons waiting for spring.

The trees got a good grooming in the gales of earlier this week, masses of sycamore seeds were about in the yard all hoping to find a nook or cranny into which to grow. What a forest we could soon have! Why do they produce so much seed which is not readily eaten by the birds, unlike the oak that has yielded an abundance that the birds and squirrels delight in. The Autumn leaves are colouring well, where the wind has not blown them off, as always they are a wonder to behold.

There are still flowers by the roadside where the grass cutting has not been too drastic. The yellow Sow-Thistles always make a late show on their tall stems. Creamy Meadowsweet and blue Cranesbill are enjoying a second flowering here and there. This morning as I finish this I was delighted to see a Gold Crest in the honeysuckle, a silent visitor. There are many delights to be enjoyed by the observant eye.

Weather Report September/October 2017

Rainfall

September was the wettest for five years. Rainfall, at 95mm, was half as high again as the average value of 60mm. By contrast, the first half of October has had only a sixth of the usual monthly rainfall. Which is not to say that things won't change before the month is out.

Temperatures

Unlike last year, when September saw some record breaking temperatures, this year the month was rather disappointing. The temperature topped 20°C on only six days, with the highest being 22.5°C on the 2nd. The lowest was 6.2°C, on the night of 21st/22nd.

In October so far, the highest has been 21.7°C while the lowest has been 6.5°C (on the 5th/6th). So, no frosts yet then.

Sunshine was also at a premium in September. From April through to August my solar panels registered over 400 units each month. In September they registered under 300.
